We are working on securing other sponsors to cover event costs and add additional prize money

In the spirit of this grant, how will revenue generated from this event be used?

All sponsorships go to cover costs or get paid back out directly. The more added money, the higher the appeal for bowlers to travel from greater distances

NDBPA State 2026 Roughrider Handicap Tournament

Hosted by South Main Lanes

Event Dates: April 18-19, 25-26 and May 2-3, 9-10

The Roughrider is a state tournament that brings in bowlers from Dickinson, Bismarck, Mandan, Elgin, Hettinger, and beyond.

The Roughrider Tournament was previously hosted in Elgin, ND and had great success. South Main Lanes was awarded the tournament for two years. With our synthetic lanes that recently were installed and two perfect games being bowled on the lines after only two perfect games being bowled at South Main Lanes ever before we are expecting a good turnout.

There are four weekends (Saturday and Sunday) that the tournament will run with shifts at 9:30 am, 12:30 pm, and 3:00 pm. Bowlers can bowl in the singles, doubles, or 4-man team divisions or a mix of multiple. This means that people are most often staying for a full day and many overnight if they come from further away.
